The fight against cancer is in all of our hands.

THE LEXINGTON CANCER FOUNDATION, INC.

Funding Cancer Research, Education and Patient Care for all Kentuckians

WWW.LEXINGTONFOUNDATION.ORG
Eleven years ago, an incredible group of women decided to start The Lexington Cancer Foundation in hopes of helping those suffering from cancer in Kentucky. Now in our eleventh year, I am grateful for the countless causes, families and patients' lives we have been able to touch. Together we have raised millions of dollars in support of our mission to fund cancer research, education and patient care.

As I reflect on the lives of our board of directors who have passed away over the years due to this dreaded disease, I know their contributions will never be forgotten; it only strengthens and reminds us of our humble mission. Thank you to the courageous women who have been on this journey with me and the immeasurable hours and commitment they have provided.

The Foundation is grateful to have the confidence of many organizations, as well as donors, whose outpouring of support have enabled us to be where we are today.

Thank you to Mr. and Mrs. Don Ball and their wonderful family for hosting us in this beautiful location at Donamire Farm over the past eleven years. We appreciate their unwavering support and countless contributions.

We are honored to have Mr. and Mrs. James Miller as our 2015 Auction Chairs. The Foundation is grateful for their personal generosity towards our efforts and their many acts of kindness.

Also, I want to thank Mr. Will Harlan, Jr., Proprietor of The Mascot, for joining us as our 2015 Vintner Chair. We are thrilled to showcase his new brand and willingness to accept this role!

Thank you to our board members, Pegasus board members, staff, volunteers, sponsors and vendors — they have been working tirelessly throughout the year to put together another fantastic event. We could not do it without them!

Every contribution counts. Many are suffering and are in need of help — the fight against cancer is in all of our hands. Make a difference, raise your paddles high and support The Lexington Cancer Foundation!

Cheers,

Will Harlan — whose father, Bill, founded Harlan Estate — grew up in the Napa Valley, running around the family winery from an early age. He graduated from Duke University in 2009 with a Bachelor’s degree in Philosophy, and briefly moved to Denver where he worked as a marketing analyst for Leap Wireless. He continued west to San Francisco in 2010, teaming up with a college roommate to work on a small web-based startup. It was during these years that Will discovered a curiosity for the business he had grown up in, and began experimenting with blending a wine of his own.

In October of 2013 he announced his new project, The Mascot: a wine made from the younger vines of Harlan Estate, BOND and Promontory. Will has since released two vintages and built a small team to whom he is now turning over the endeavor as he steps into a leadership role with Promontory.

Living in San Francisco, working both from the city and up in the Napa Valley, Will seeks to forge relationships in a new generation of wine enthusiasts while furthering the family wineries’ evolutionary path.

The Mascot is a Napa Valley cabernet made from distinct hillside vineyards; specifically the younger vines of Harlan Estate, BOND and Promontory. It started out nameless and label-less as a small project championed by Will Harlan and shared among the family, winemaking team and close friends. Drawing fruit from blocks of recently replanted vineyards (7-15 years of age), The Mascot shares a glimpse into the evolution of its parent estates: a youthful snapshot of their future.

With the 2008 vintage, Will had enough wine — 500 cases — to introduce the endeavor to the outside world, releasing the first bottles in 2013. A hedonistic blend of power and balance, The Mascot is expressive and approachable early in its life with potential to evolve well into the future.

“At a time when our industry needs to focus on the challenges that confront us, I am pleased that a person of the caliber and experience of Walt Robertson is joining our leadership team,” says Nick Nicholson, president of Keeneland. “I have admired Walt as a friend and a colleague for forty years and this is a huge win for Keeneland and the entire Thoroughbred industry.”

In addition to his vast work in the Thoroughbred industry, Robertson also has been active in the central Kentucky community for many years. The Mascot Wine – From Vine to Table

This is rare opportunity to experience the younger vines and winemaking talents of the prestigious Harlan Estate, BOND and Promontory. The Mascot shares a unique glimpse into the evolution of these winegrowing estates.

The Mascot began early on as an experiment, after Will Harlan, Jr. worked with his family and winemaking team to spare a few barrels of wine - produced from younger vines - to explore a blend of his own. In the first few years, before it had a label or a name, it was just a wine shared with friends and family. It wasn’t until the 2008 vintage, the first official release, that he had enough to share with new friends – and another Harlan viticulture gem was born.

Two couples will start their Napa Valley adventure at the highly acclaimed Meadowood Napa Valley for three nights. Will Harlan, Jr. will personally tempt your tasting palate with a private vertical tasting of the first five vintages of The Mascot. During your luxurious stay, enjoy dinner one night at the 3-star Michelin rated “The Restaurant at Meadowood.” Upon your departure, your wine cellar will be filled with three magnums per couple of The Mascot’s next five vintage releases.

Oscars Weekend, Chopard’s Red Carpet Collection, and Napa Valley

The glitz and magnetism of Hollywood has always served as a perfectly cultivated playground for celebrities and socialites from around the world. However, it’s never more alluring then during the most dazzling time of year: Academy Awards Season. Red carpet glamour and Oscar winning talent have become synonymous with the house of Chopard.

One couple will experience the red carpet treatment with a 3-night stay at a famed Five Star hotel that is a favorite hotspot of Hollywood’s elite. While the celebrities remain tucked away in preparation for the ceremony, you will be treated to a private viewing of Chopard’s world-famous Red Carpet Collection of jewelry. Meet with the Maison’s Co-President and Creative Director, Caroline Scheufele to garner some inspiration for how you will spend your merchandise credit of up to $20,000 (50% of total product selection). The winner of this lot will attend one of the most anticipated and private parties of Oscars’ weekend. The highly-exclusive viewing- and after-party, sponsored by Chopard, will have you celebrating with some of the hottest stars.

After their whirlwind Oscar weekend, or during a time of your choosing, the couple will head to the Camelot of Wine Country, Napa Valley. Their red carpet experience will continue as guests of Robin and Michelle Baggett at their Rutherford winery, Alpha Omega, a world-class producer of profoundly deep and flavorful wines that are rich and polished—perhaps on par with the jewels which grace the red carpet. They will enjoy two nights at 5-Star Meadowood resort in St, Helena with an exclusive vintner dinner collaborated by Alpha Omega and Meadowood. This divine experience will be hosted at Harlan’s Napa Valley Reserve, an ultra-private winery-themed country club helmed by world-renowned Estate Chef, Alejandro Ayalabra.

The couple’s once-in-a-lifetime experience reaches its climax at Alpha Omega’s state-of-the-art facility. A private-tasting of library and allocated wines handcrafted by winemaker Jean Hoefliger and Michel Rolland will be hosted by all-star winemaker, Jean Hoefliger, followed by an intimate lunch in the vineyard paired with Alpha Omega wines. As you wish for this experience to never end, Alpha Omega ensures that this is just the beginning by extending an Alpha Omega Magnum Wine Club membership for a year which includes invitations to all wine club events.
